EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI) FROM SAUDI ARABIA-LICENSED LAW FIRMS

Cooperation in Compensation Claims of Nepali Workers

23 November 2026

EMBASSY OF NEPAL RIYADH

The Embassy of Nepal in Riyadh invites Expressions of Interest (EOI) from duly licensed, qualified and experienced law firms in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia to cooperate with the Embassy in representing and pursuing compensation-related cases involving Nepali nationals in the Kingdom. Such matters may include blood money (Diya), death compensation, work-place and road-traffic accidents, road-traffic and workplace accidents, employer or insurer liability, legally applicable work-related benefits, related civil claims, and enforcement or recovery of compensation awards.

SCOPE OF COOPERATION:

- Case assessment and legal advice;
- Preparing, filing and following of claims, petitions, pleadings and applications before the competent Saudi authorities, Public Prosecution, Courts, Judicial Committees and execution authorities;
- Legal representation before Police, Public Prosecution, Courts, Judicial Committees and execution authorities;
- Provide legal support and assistance in relevant proceedings, appeals, settlement discussions and enforcement of arbitral awards;
- Providing regular written updates on cases including progress, key actions taken, pending requirements, decisions and expected next steps;
- Transfer of the recovered compensation to the account of the Embassy of Nepal in Riyadh.
- Coordinating with the Embassy, the concerned Nepali nationals and/or their lawful heirs through the Embassy, and relevant Saudi authorities;

FEE ARRANGEMENT:

"No Win, No Fee. The percentage of the success fee will be in accordance with the relevant decision of the Government of Nepal and will be discussed during the finalization of Agreement/Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the law firms and Embassy.

REQUIRED SUBMISSION:

- Firm profile, including Saudi commercial/professional licence details, registration copy, office locations, years of practice and relevant areas of expertise;
- Names and CVs of the lawyers and other professionals proposed for the assignment, including qualifications, valid Saudi licence/ court of audience, experience and languages.
- A brief overview of the Law Firm, highlighting its relevant experience and expertise in handling matters involving Diya (blood money), compensation for death and personal injuries, road traffic and workplace accidents, insurance liability, and labour-related claims, as well as any previous experience working in cooperation with diplomatic missions in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.
- Name, designation, telephone/mobile number, email address and full contact details of the designated focal person of the firm
- Any law firms having the valid agreement with the Nepal Embassy if wishes to provide this service also require to submit their EOI.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE AND CONTACT

Submission deadline	4.00 p.m. (Riyadh time), 3 December 2026
Submission email	eonriyadh@mofa.gov.np
Email subject	EOI – Compensation Claims – Name of Law Firm
Further information	WhatsApp No.: +966 535692658

NOTE: The Embassy may seek additional information or clarification, conduct due diligence, and accept or reject any EOI at its discretion. Submission of an EOI does not create any entitlement to selection, case allocation, payment or reimbursement. The Embassy does not guarantee any minimum number or value of cases. Each case assignment shall be subject to a separate written authorization/agreement, verification of the relevant documents and any required power of attorney or authorization from the concerned claimant or lawful heirs. All work must be carried out in accordance with the laws and professional regulations of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the applicable rules and decisions of the Government of Nepal.

Embassy of Nepal, Riyadh