Nepal keen to boost bilateral ties with Oman in all sectors

Oman Monday 12/August/2024 16:54 PM

By Times News Service

Muscat: Nepal is keen to increase its cooperation with Oman in trade, investment, economic cooperation, agriculture, energy, tourism, labour and foreign employment, culture, education as well as direct air connectivity.

Speaking to Times of Oman, Foreign Secretary of Nepal, Seva Lamsal, said that she discussed bilateral relations with several key officials in Oman and expressed their firm commitment to further enhance partnership in mutually agreed areas.

She also said that both countries need to work together towards realising economic opportunities for mutual benefits besides creating more opportunities to promote people-to-people engagement in the Sultanate of Oman.

During her visit, she described Muscat as a beautiful, well planned, peaceful and developed city. "I can track the footprint of the visionary leader of Oman and am very much impressed and wanted to know more about Oman Vision 2040," she said.

She further said that Nepal also has the vision and a road map for the country's future. "We lack timely implementation of them and we have to learn how to deliver results on ground because people's expectations are very high everywhere in the world."

She also said Nepal and Oman have been enjoying excellent bilateral relationships. "Our relationships are founded on utmost friendship and goodwill. We don't have any issues and have friendship and goodwill. Our people are working in Oman and they are very happy."

She also said this is the first ever political and bilateral consultation meeting with Oman. "This is just the beginning and I am happy that I became a part of this historic meeting. In our country's history, it is the beginning and we are planning many other high level visits soon," she added.

The Foreign Secretary of Nepal also is looking for direct connectivity with Oman.

The First-ever Special Camp on Social Security Services in Oman

The Embassy of Nepal, Muscat organized a special camp for Social Security Enrolment, Consular Services and Labour awareness at the Embassy premises from 09:00 hrs to 18:00 hrs on 29 November 2024.

The special services camp commenced with lighting of traditional Panas lamp by H.E. Dornath Aryal, Ambassador of Nepal to the Sultanate of Oman. Speaking at the event, Ambassador Aryal highlighted about the Social Security Fund, initiatives taken the Government of Nepal and importance of SSF. He, further, thanked the team from the Social Security Fund, Embassy staff and representatives of Oman based Nepali organizations and volunteers for their encouraging participation. While speaking on the occasion, Mr. Bibek Panthee, Deputy Executive Director of the Social Security Fund highlighted the procedures and benefits of the scheme.

A three-member team from Social Security Fund, Kathmandu comprising Mr. Bibek Panthee, Deputy Executive Director, Ms. Radhika Niraula, Assistant Director and Mr. Rajesh Chapagain, IT officer, is visiting Oman for the special event.

A separate desk was set up to provide Labour and Consular Services at the camp. Mr. Bishesh Kumar Sah, Second Secretary and Mr. Govinda Prasad Acharya, Labour Attache' coordinated the event. Service seekers continued to attend the camp throughout the day. Around 215 Nepalis received the services from yesterday and today's camp. Such events will be conducted again for those who could not avail the services.

The Embassy found that most of the participants were unaware of the Social Security System scheme and expressed happiness for the information and services provided in Oman itself. They also requested the Embassy to continue such services and to provide work permits from the Embassy itself.

Also in the past, the Embassy had conducted passport-consular services camps on weekend to facilitate the Nepali community members who find it difficult to come to the Embassy on a week day. But this camp was special due to social security related services. The special services camp was the first-ever camp on the social security enrolment and regularization services provided in a foreign land.

The Embassy has also planned to conduct a similar camp in Sohar, Oman on 30 November 2024. The same team from the Social Security Fund and the Embassy staff will travel to Sohar to organize the special services camp to facilitate the Nepali workers in that region. A Trainer's Training programme has also been scheduled on 02 December 2024 to train volunteers about Social Security services so that they could further educate Nepali workers in Oman.
