Presentation of Letters of Credence by Ambassador of Nepal to the United States of America

His Excellency Mr. Lok Darshan Regmi, Ambassador of Nepal to the United States of America, presented his Letters of Credence to His Excellency Mr. Donald J. Trump, President of the United States of America, at a formal ceremony held at the White House in Washington, D.C. today.

Following the presentation, Ambassador Regmi had an audience with President Trump. During the meeting, Ambassador Regmi conveyed the warm greetings and best wishes of the Right Honorable President, the Right Honorable Prime Minister, and the people of Nepal for the President's continued good health, happiness, and a successful tenure. He also extended best wishes for the continued peace, progress, and prosperity of the United States of America and its people.

Ambassador Regmi expressed gratitude for the longstanding support of the United States towards Nepal's socio-economic development. He conveyed his confidence that the multifaceted and enduring partnership between Nepal and the United States would continue to grow and deepen in the years ahead, to the mutual benefit of both countries and peoples.

President Trump welcomed Ambassador Regmi to the United States and congratulated him on assuming his new responsibilities. He expressed the U.S. Government's commitment to further strengthening the cordial and cooperative relations that exist between the two countries through enhanced collaboration in areas of mutual interest.

Ambassador Regmi arrived in the United States on March 20, 2025, assumed office on March 21, 2025, and presented a copy of his Letters of Credence to the Acting Chief of Protocol on March 27, 2025.
