Consulate General of Nepal
Dallas

January 25, 2026

Notice regarding suspension of Consulate services on Monday 26 January 2026

The competent authorities of the US government have issued Winter Storm Warning and inclement weather forecast for several States including Texas this weekend and next few days. As of today, the National Weather Service has issued extreme cold warning advisory for Dallas Fort Worth area that will continue through Tuesday morning. It has been cautioned to avoid travel because of worse road conditions due to accumulating ice and sleet.

In line with the weather advisories issued by the competent authorities, Consulate General of Nepal Dallas requests all Nepali nationals and Diaspora members to remain vigilant, follow safety and security instructions issued by the authorities and avoid any non-urgent outdoor activities and travel until the weather improves and road safety is ensured.

The Consulate General has decided to suspend all routine services and functions on Monday, January 26, 2026, to ensure safety of our service seekers and consulate staff. We request those who have made appointments for passport and other consular services for that day to visit the Consulate during the next working days at their convenience.

For any urgent Consular Services, please contact Mr. Prabin Bhattarai, Consul at 817 622 5139 and Mr. Khil Prasad Burlakoti, Public Relations Officer at 214 603 5332.

Thank You.
