Hon. Home Minister's Visit to the UAE

The Hon'ble Mr. Sudhan Gurung, Minister for Home Affairs of the Government of Nepal, and his delegation arrived in Dubai on the night of 13th November to participate in the World Police Summit 2026 at DWTC in Dubai at the invitation of the UAE government and to engage in high-level bilateral meetings aimed at strengthening Nepal–UAE cooperation.

The Hon. Home Minister held a bilateral meeting with H.E. Dr. Thani bin Ahmed Al Zeyoudi, Minister of Foreign Trade of the United Arab Emirates, today in Abu Dhabi. The Hon. Ministers discussed various areas of mutual interest as well as ways to further strengthen and deepen bilateral relations between Nepal and the UAE.

During the meeting, the discussions focused on avenues for expanding economic engagement, institutional collaboration, and bilateral trade; promoting UAE investment in Nepal's hydropower, including the Budhi Gandaki hydropower project, agriculture, tourism, hospitality, and infrastructure sectors; and enhancing cooperation in technology, logistics, and aviation connectivity. The two Ministers also exchanged views on the concept of Faceless Policing, the production of non-lethal security gears, and the modernization of security agencies through the adoption of advanced and technology-driven solutions.

The discussions also reaffirmed the shared commitment to building a stronger, investment-driven economic partnership, with a focus on deepening economic cooperation, promoting greater private-sector engagement, and advancing mutually beneficial development initiatives.

During the meeting, the Hon. Home Minister was accompanied by H.E. Mr. Tej Bahadur Chhetri, Ambassador of Nepal to the United Arab Emirates; H.E. Mr. Hari Prasad Odari, Consul General of Nepal to Dubai and the Northern Emirates; the Joint Secretary and senior officials from the Ministry of Home Affairs; and officials from the Embassy of Nepal.

The Hon. Minister also visited the Embassy of Nepal in Abu Dhabi today, where he received a briefing from Embassy officials on bilateral relations, consular services, and the welfare of the Nepali diaspora in the UAE. He also interacted with the members of Nepali community in the UAE.
