Press Release

The Consulate General of Nepal in Chengdu observed Republic Day, 2083 and International Sagarmatha Day on 29th May 2026.

The members of the Consulate observed a minute of silence in respect to all the people who have obtained martyrdom in building the country to its present-day status. After playing the National Anthem, the National flag on the premises of the consulate office was hoisted by the Consul General. The message of unity and solidarity as expressed by the President was read out to the diplomatic and local staffs.

In recognition of the incredible feat of human will and perseverance, where the Everest was first summited in 1953, the symbolism of Everest as a core component of Nepali identity was highlighted by the Consul General in his remarks.

The Consulate is going to organize multiple events over the next couple weeks including sports related event and cultural promotion under the theme of Sagarmatha Day.
