Press Release

The Embassy organized a programme on 'Nepal-Bangladesh Relations: Advancing Economic Cooperation' in Rangpur this evening.

Ambassador Mr. Ghanshyam Bhandari, in his address, underscored the wide-ranging opportunities for bilateral cooperation in areas such as trade, transit, energy, connectivity, education, and tourism. He also emphasized the importance of strengthening business connections to foster a more robust economic partnership between the two countries. In this context, he commended the Rangpur business community for their contributions to promoting private sector engagement between Nepal and Bangladesh.

First Secretary Ms. Yojana Bamjan made a presentation outlining the main areas of economic cooperation with particular emphasis on trade, transit and connectivity, energy, and tourism, among others. She highlighted the progress achieved so far in these sectors and noted the prospects for further collaboration.

The presentation was followed by an interactive session, during which participants focused on ways to further advance Nepal-Bangladesh economic partnership.

Additional District Magistrate of Rangpur Mr. Christopher Himel Ritchil, President of Rangpur Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce and Industry Mr. Md. Ghulam Zakaria, Acting President of Rangpur Chamber of Commerce and Industry Mr. Manjur Ahmed, President of Rangpur Women Chamber of Commerce and Industry Ms. Shahanaz Parvin Shahin, also spoke at the event, stressing the need to strengthen linkages between business communities of the two countries.

Participants including representatives of various Chambers of Commerce and Industries and business organizations, prominent business leaders, travel and tour entrepreneurs and media persons based in Rangpur attended the programme.
