Press release

The Consulate General of Nepal in Lhasa hosted a program under the theme “Trade, Tourism and Investment Potential in Nepal: Nepal-China Cooperation for Shared Prosperity” today at the Shangri-La Hotel, Lhasa.

H.E. Mr. Zhao Peng, Vice Chairman of the People's Government of the Xizang Autonomous Region (XAR) of the People's Republic of China, honored the occasion as the Chief Guest. The event was attended by senior regional government officials, influential Chinese investors, business representatives, dynamic tourism entrepreneurs, and members of the Nepali business community based in Lhasa, among other key stakeholders.

Prior to the main event, the Consul General Mr. Laxmi Prasad Niraula and H.E. Mr. Zhao Peng engaged in an amicable and productive discussion that focused on mutual interests and strategies to bolster the enduring friendship between Nepal and the Xizang Autonomous Region of the PRC. The formal program began with the playing of the national anthems of Nepal and China, reflecting the warm and friendly relations between the two neighboring countries.

Consul Mr. Sabin Bhattarai delivered a compelling overview on "Trade, Tourism and Investment Potential in Nepal," showcasing not only Nepal's strategic geographical position and rich natural resources but also its thriving tourism sector and favorable investment atmosphere. His presentation underscored the vast opportunities for enhanced economic collaboration between Nepal and China, particularly with the Xizang Autonomous Region.

During the event, tourism promotional videos showcasing Nepal's natural and cultural heritages were also screened, captivating the audience. In his address, H.E. Mr. Zhao Peng spoke about the importance of mutual cooperation. He reaffirmed the XAR government's commitment to closely collaborating with Nepal to enhance cross-border trade, tourism, and investment for mutual benefit.

In his concluding remarks, the Consul General Mr. Niraula highlighted the long-standing friendship between Nepal and China, reinforcing the pivotal role of the Xizang Autonomous Region as a bridge for economic and cultural exchange.

The program concluded on a high note, followed by a luncheon that brought together government officials, business leaders, and representatives from both sides. The gathering provided a friendly platform for guests to connect and discuss future partnerships for Nepal-China cooperation.
