

Press release

The Consulate General of Nepal in Lhasa organized a formal ceremony to unveil the statue of Princess Bhrikuti at the premises of the Consulate General Office in Lhasa. The event was held to commemorate the historic cultural and civilizational ties between Nepal and Xizang (Tibet) Autonomous Region of China, symbolized by the revered figure of Princess Bhrikuti.

Prof Dr. Jagadish Vaidhya graced the ceremony as a distinguished guest. In his remarks, he highlighted the enduring legacy of Princess Bhrikuti as a bridge of friendship, cultural exchange, and mutual respect between Nepal and Xizang (Tibet) Autonomous Region of China. He also underscored the importance of preserving shared heritage to strengthen people-to-people connections.

In his address, Consul General Mr. Laxmi Prasad Niraula emphasized the historical significance of Princess Bhrikuti in fostering Nepal–Xizang (Tibet) relations and noted that the installation of the statue stands as a symbol of Nepal’s rich cultural heritage and its commitment to promoting cultural diplomacy.

The ceremony was attended by members of the Nepali community, scholars, and well-wishers. The event concluded with a renewed commitment to further enhancing cultural ties and mutual understanding between Nepal and the Xizang (Tibet) Autonomous Region of China.

The Consulate General of Nepal in Lhasa remains committed to promoting Nepal’s cultural heritage and strengthening bilateral relations through such initiatives.
