Notice on the Virtual Condolence Book

The Embassy of Nepal in Abu Dhabi expresses its profound sorrow over the devastating flash floods in the Bhote Koshi and Trishuli river regions of Nepal on 26 August 2026, which have resulted in the tragic loss of many lives, with several people injured and still missing. The disaster has also caused extensive damage to private and public properties, including vital infrastructure.

Search, rescue, and relief operations are currently underway in the affected districts of Rasuwa, Nuwakot, Dhading, and Chitwan to locate those who remain missing and to provide immediate assistance and support to the affected communities.

In this time of profound national grief, the Embassy of Nepal in Abu Dhabi invites members of the diplomatic community, friends of Nepal, Nepali community members, and interested individuals and organizations in the United Arab Emirates to convey their messages of condolences and sympathy through the online Virtual Condolence link provided below until 03 September 2026.
